Proof of Loss

Claims against the bond must comply with section 13 of the Transport (Tour Operators and Travel Agents) Act, 1982. Customers may only make a valid claim if they have incurred loss or liability because the inability or failure of the travel agent or tour operator to meet their financial or contractual obligations to the customer under an overseas travel contract. Pursuant to the Transport (Tour Operators and Travel Agents) Act, 1982 (Claims by Customers) Regulations, S.I. No. 104 of 1983, customers are required to make a claim in writing using this form and to provide proof of loss.

Claims can also be made against the Refund Credit Note scheme, where a customer can provide evidence of the refund credit note along with evidence that the trip was cancelled as a direct result of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Proof of loss includes relevant receipts, invoices, bank statements and credit card statements and other relevant documentation to be provided to the Commission to demonstrate actual payments made in relation to the loss claimed. Before submitting bank statements, please blank out any references to your account number (account number & IBAN number).

As set out further below not all transactions between a customer and a travel agent or tour operator are covered by the bond or refund credit note scheme. Customers may also want to take note of the chargeback rules in relation to credit cards. For further information please contact the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission website: <http://www.consumerhelp.ie/chargeback>

Customers are required to make a claim within 120 days of the date from which the tour operator or travel agent failed or was unable to meet their contractual obligations to its customers. Customers are encouraged to make claims promptly with such proof of loss as is available to them at that time. If the Commission requires further proof of loss it will request that from customers.

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which came into effect on 25th May 2018 and the Data Protection Act 1988-2018, all personal and sensitive data provided in connection with this claim will be processed in line with the principles of Data protection. All processing of personal data will be done lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner which ensures appropriate security and confidentiality of all personal information provided to us. For more information regarding your rights and our obligation under GDPR, please visit our privacy notice here.

Section 5. Passenger Declaration

Important Note: This Section must be signed by all persons over 18 in the booking party and all those who have made payment(s) towards the booking. If not, it will be returned as an invalid claim.

Before payment can be made, each claimant must assign to the Commission any claims for refund or reimbursement arising from the booking. Accordingly, each person in the booking party, as well as the person who made the original payment, must sign this section.

The claimant's attention is drawn to the heavy penalty provisions relating to the false or misleading submissions for the purpose of obtaining payment from the bond, which are set out in the Transport (Tour Operators and Travel Agents) Act, 1982 as amended.

I/We certify that I/we agree to the payment of the refund as detailed in Section 4 of this claim.

In consideration of any payments made to me or on my behalf, I hereby assign to the Commission for Aviation Regulation any claim I may have against Manasik Tours Ltd.

I/We hereby declare that the information I/we have provided in connection with this claim is the truth and that neither I nor anyone else included in the claim has received any refund from either a bank or any insurance company of the sums claimed above. I/We agree to indemnify the Commission for Aviation Regulation in event of over/dual payment.

I/We understand that I/we am/are able to seek refunds from other sources if such sums fall outside the scope of the scheme and I/we undertake to inform the Commission to update my claim if I do receive a refund from any other source.

I/We confirm that neither I nor anyone else included on the claim has insurance cover against travel agent/ tour operator failure. I/We hereby acknowledge that I/we understand that dishonestly entering information and/or making a claim which is, or might be, untrue or misleading, and intend by doing so to make a gain for myself or another person, or to cause loss or the risk of loss to the provider of the Bond/insurance/Travellers' Protection Fund/Refund Credit Note scheme, I/we may commit the offence of making a gain by deception contrary to section 6 of the Criminal Justice (Theft and Fraud Offences) Act, 2001.

Section 7. Notes

1. Insurance

If you purchased travel insurance through Manasik Tours Ltd you are not eligible for a refund (for the cost of travel insurance) under the Bond/Refund Credit Note scheme. Insurance is not a travel service.

2. Payment Details

The Commission, once satisfied with your payment details, must then check with the suppliers, hotels, air carriers etc to confirm if payments/part payments have been forwarded from Manasik Tours Ltd.

3. Other deductions

- Cancellation of payment

If you have cancelled a cheque/direct debit/standing order payment made Manasik Tours Ltd this has been confirmed by your bank this amount will not be paid from the Bond/Refund Credit Note scheme.

Example. You paid €1,000 for an overseas holiday. You cancelled your last payment (by cheque or credit card), for the amount of €500.00, when you heard the company went out of business. The total amount to be claimed would be €500 minus any other charges that are not eligible to claim (e.g. credit card charge, insurance etc..)

- Credit card charge

These charges (e.g. 2.5% as charged by retailer) will not be refunded from the Bond/Refund Credit Note scheme.

4. Total Claim

This is the amount you are eligible to claim from the bond/refund credit note scheme after all deductions have been taken into account.

5. Third Party Payments

An example of a third party is where you have rebooked a holiday with another Travel Agent/Tour Operator and you wish them to receive the refund due to you under your claim. If you assign payment of your claim to a Travel Agent/Tour Operator please check they are licensed and bonded with the Commission for Aviation Regulation (www.aviationreg.ie) before assigning them. The Commission cannot make payments to Travel Agents/Tour Operators that do not have the appropriate licence.

6. Works Visa/Work Permit

If you purchased work visa's/permits through Manasik Tours Ltd you are not eligible for a refund of these costs under the Bond/Refund Credit Note scheme. These are not travel services.
